THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

MONDAY, April 9th, 1744. [Numb. 524]

From the Gentleman's Magazine, for November last.

TURKY.

THE formidable Kouli Kan is still making Advances into the Turkish Dominions, having taken Kirkout, and having very little Resistance to fear in the open Country, which he is now entering with an Army said to contain above an Hundred and Ten Thousand Men, all hardened by a long Course of continual Fatigues and successive Actions, and maintained by the Plunder of the Mogul's Empire. While an Enemy like this is ravaging their Borders, it may be imagined that the Turks, though they should conclude the Alliance to which the French are now said to solicit them, cannot much influence the Affairs of Germany.

RUSSIA.

The amicable Commerce between the Czarina, the Queen of Hungary, and the Allies, seems to be present interrupted by the Discovery, whether real or pretended, of the secret Transactions of the Marquis de Botta, against whom the Czarina appears very much exasperated, having in a Manifesto publickly charged him with an Attempt to deprive her of this Throne, and demanded from the Queen of Hungary that he should be punished as a Traytor. The Marquis was immediately recalled, at his own Request from Berlin, in order to his Justification, and bro't with him very favourable Attestations from the King of Prussia. He was examined by the Commissioners appointed, who represented to the Queen, that they found no Reason for imagining him guilty. The Queen has published a Rescript, in which she complains of the Precipitation and Credulity of the Court of Russia, professes her Readiness to punish her Minister, if any Crime can be proved against him, and without Scruple charges the French with having contrived these Accusations only to alienate the Czarina from her.

The true State of this unexpected Transaction is not yet known, some imagine, that Proposals, very unpleasing to the Czarina, were made by the Marquis to the Princess of Brunswick, whose Liberty he was directed to solicit; others appear to suspect that Schemes have been form'd against the Duke of Holstein's Dominions and to believe that the Czarina is not altogether satisfied with the Designs of the British and Hanoverian Court. Whatever be the Cause of this Disunion, it must apparently retard, if not prevent the Success of the Confederacy formed against the French, who are once more likely to establish by Policy, what was endangered by War, and to continue Masters of this Part of the World.

SWEDEN.

The Swedes being by their Compliance with the Proposals made by the Russian Empress set free from the Perplexity of contending with a superior Power, and restored to the Possession of that Province which they had lost, seem now to have no other Care than that of regulating their Form of Government, which they appear at present inclined to remove as far as it is possible from an absolute Monarchy, the Terms on which the successor to the Crown is received, leaving him nothing certain but the Title of King, for he has been obliged to the following Stipulations.

1. That when he ascends the Throne, after the King's Death; and is crowned, he will govern according to the Laws of the Kingdom, and Forms of Government which the States shall agree upon.

2. That he will always profess the Lutheran Religion, and marry a Princess of the same Religion, according to the Advice of the King and Senate.

3. That he will not change the Regulations and Ordinances made by the States, unless it be with their Consent.

4. That he will not admit any Foreigners to the civil or military Employments of the Kingdom.

5. That he never will bring any Foreign Troops into Sweden.

6. That he will never go out of the Kingdom, without the Consent of the States.

On the first of these Articles it may be observed that the Promise which he makes is unlimited, and that such Regulations may be made by the States as may reduce his Dignity to an empty Sound; But if he can have no just Reason to complain, since he ought, like other Monarchs to consider himself only as appointed for the Advantage of the People who have an undoubted Right to judge of their own Interest.

The three last Stipulations seem to be borrowed from the English Succession, and if they persist in their Resolution of restraining their King from visiting his other Dominions, may probably very much contribute to their Happiness.

The Prince is said to endeavour by all the Arts of Address to recommend himself to the Swedish People, who discover both in his Person and Manner of Life some Resemblance of Charles XII. for whose Bravery they still retain a very high Degree of Veneration, notwithstanding the Calamities which his Ambition and Obstinacy brought upon them.

DENMARK.

Though the Design of an Expedition against Sweden is now laid aside, the Danes do not yet wholly remit their Preparations for War, but continue to augment their Fleet, that they may be able in the spring to assert their Claim, or because they justly think that they shall be able to establish Peace upon better Terms in Proportion, as they are more able to make War. It is expected that the Marriage of the Prince of Denmark will procure a powerful Mediation between the Danes and Swedes, of which however there may be some Doubts in the present Disposition of the Prussian Court; since it will be of more Advantage to the common Cause of Europe that the Czarina should protect Sweden against the Danes, than assist France against the Queen of Hungary.

GERMANY.

It is said, that the French have formed Means of re-establishing their Interest, and that they have persuaded the King of Prussia, and other Princes of the Empire, to unite their Forces in order to drive all Foreigners out of the Empire, and that in Consequence of this Determination, the Army of the Allies has retired into the Dominions of Austria, to pass the Winter. Nor is this, though sufficiently advantageous to the French, all that they promise themselves from their Negociations, for they declare that the King of Prussia has engaged to support them in the Possession of Alsace, and to assist the Emperor in the Recovery of Bavaria; and that in Return, he is to be secured in his new Acquisitions, and to be enabled by the French to seize some other Province belonging to the Queen of Hungary. The French Troops are in Motion on the Rhine, but 'tis only to rebuilt a Fort on this Side.

ITALY.

The Spaniards are said to have lost in their late Attempt to pass into Piedmont a very great Number, and to have suffered great Hardships in their Retreat, so that their Force is almost broken, and their Spirits totally depressed.

The Count de Gages too, having no longer any Hopes of Assistance from Don Philip, is retreating before Prince Lobkowitz, whose Army consists of 18,000 Men, augmented every Day. The King of Sicily is alarmed at the Approach of an Army which he cannot oppose; and is therefore careful not to provoke Hostilities by departing from the Neutrality.

LONDON,

ONDON, January 14.

LAST Wednesday the Lords of the Admiralty ordered a Liſt to be given them of what Ships are not in Commiſſion and the Number of Guns they carry, in order to fix upon ſeveral to be put in Commiſſion from 80 to 20 Guns.

Orders are given by the Lords of the Admiralty, for all the Officers and Sailors of the Men of War lying at Portſmouth, Spithead, &c. to repair immediately to their reſpective Ships, not excuſing thoſe who have Leave to be abſent.

The Court of France has lately given Orders for ſuſpending the Works of Dunkirk; and has likewiſe taken ſome other Steps that do not ſeem to ſpeak ſo great an Averſion to Peace as their Miniſters at Foreign Courts have, for ſome Time paſt, pretended.

We hear that Orders have been ſent from the Lords of the Admiralty to the Commiſſioners of the Navy, for taking up Tranſports, in order to carry over the Forces which are to go to Flanders.

Yeſterday came an Account, that the Bacchus, Cobb, bound from Oporto to Lynn, was attack'd on the 6th Inſt by a Spaniſh Privateer, call'd the Bagona, belonging to Bilboa, of 8 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and 120 Men, with whom Capt Cobb fought Four Hours, tho' he had but 14 Men and Two Boys, and tho' the Privateer boarded him with a Number of Men, yet he clear'd his Ship, having kill'd ſeveral, forc'd above 20 to leap over board, and oblig'd the Privateer to ſheer off; at which Time the Privateer having heel'd, one of Capt. Cobb's Shot took Place between Wind and Water, which occaſion'd her to founder in a very little Time; on ſeeing this Diſtreſs, he hoiſted out his Boat and ſav'd 30 of the Spaniards; who roſe upon Capt. Cobb's Crew the next Day, (truſting to their ſuperior Number) and endeavour'd to murder them all; but after a very obſtinate Fight, in which 11 Spaniards were kill'd, Capt. Cobb ſecur'd his Ship, and has brought 19 of them Priſoners along with him. He receiv'd ſeveral Wounds in his Body, during this laſt Action, had 2 of his Men dangerouſly wounded, and 3 others ſlightly hurt.

They write from Breſt that the following Ships are to compoſe the Two Squadrons under the Command of Admiral Roquefeuille, and there are, already, almoſt Sailors enough to mann them compleatly.

Theſe Squadrons are to be reinforced by Four other new built Ships fitting out at Rochefort.

January 17 The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty have directed all Officers and Seamen belonging to his Majeſty's Ships Sandwich, Duke, St. George, Princeſs Royal, Cornwall, Princeſs Amelia, Shrewsbury, Northumberland, Suffolk, Worceſter, Plymouth, Auguſta, Dreadnought, Medway, Preſton, Advice, Kinſale, Saphire, Ætna Fireſhip, and Lightning and Terrible Bomb Ketches, whether they are abſent with Leave or without, to repair immediately on board their reſpective Ships as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril, not only of loſing their Wages, but of being taken up and puniſh'd with the utmoſt Severity of the Law againſt Deſertion.

In our laſt we gave an exact Liſt of the Breſt Squadrons, and the following may be depended on as a juſt Account of the Force of that at Toulon, under the Command of the Admirals de Court and Navarro.

On the 11th of laſt Month his Majeſty's Ship the Captain, commanded by Capt. Griffin, being on a Cruize, met with, and took a Spaniſh Privateer of St. Sebaſtian's, of 4 Guns and 66 Men, call'd the St. Antonio. She had taken only one Prize during her Cruize, call'd the Lydia, of Poole; which was retaken by the Captain the latter End of November. Capt. Griffin has put ſome Men on board the Privateer, and employs her in getting Knowledge of the Enemy's Harbours and Places of anchoring.

Mr. Timothy.

SIR,

AS the following may be of Service to ſome of your afflicted Readers, pleaſe to allow it a Place in your Gazette.

Having heard that the Virtues of Mrs. Stephens's Medicines for the GRAVEL is doubted; and that by others it is queſtioned if they can be prepared in this Province.

If the ſuffering of ſevere Tortures calls for the Sympathy of others; or a Deliverance from them, grateful Acknowledgements for Benefits receiv'd, I have great Reaſon to do both: For, after I had been afflicted many Weeks together, in a moſt exquiſite Manner by the GRAVEL, with very little or no Intermiſſion, or Reſt by Night or Day, and receiv'd no Benefit from the Applications of ſeveral good Doctors, my Diſorder returned oftener, and more violent than ever, ſo that I had no Expectations of Life, and truly had it been left to my Choice, I cou'd freely have parted with it, to put an End to my Torment.

In this Condition I was adviſed, by Dr Mitchell, to a Conſultation of my Caſe, with ſome Phyſicians in Charleſtown, who jointly adviſed me to a Courſe of Mrs. Stephens's Medicines, which were prepared and given me by Dr. Mitchell, with this remarkable Succeſs; that my ſevere Vomitings and Hickoughs very ſoon left me, and the Fits of Pain that uſed to rack me violently 12 Hours in 24, became more moderate and returned only once in 48 Hours, and ſo gradually abated of their Violence and Frequency, 'till I had one Fit after 3 Weeks Intermiſſion, which is the laſt Fit I have had; although to prevent a Relapſe, I uſed the Medicines much longer, yea in all for 7 Months, and have left off the Uſe of any theſe 5 Months: I have ſince employed myſelf in my uſual Buſineſs of Planting; and am (Praiſe be to God) in as good Health, and free (as I think) from any Signs of that Diſorder, as ever I was in my Life: Wherefore as I would adviſe my Fellow-Sufferers in this Diſorder not to deſpair, ſo likewiſe to obſerve Directions cloſely, leſt their Pains admoniſh them of their Errors.

I am, Sir,

Your humble Servant,

SAMUEL LOWLE.

WHEREAS very little Regard has been had to former Advertisements, by the Subscribers to Bishop Roberts, deceased, to pay their respective Subscriptions to his Widow and Administratrix, and as she is unwilling to use the disagreeable Method of suing for the same, again desires they would take more Notice of the present, and make speedy payment to her, at Mrs Hammerton's on the Green near St. Philip's Church, (as otherwise she lays under a great Disadvantage in settling with her said Husband's Creditors) on Failure of which she must be obliged to put the said Subscribers Names into this Gazette, to prevent their pleading Ignorance, but she hopes they will prevent her going to that Expence.
